To Whom It May Concern:

Texas Society of CPAs (TSCPA) has utilized AccountingWEB's news wire service for several years now. Besides posting their weekly round-up of accounting news on our Web site at tscpa.org, we include their compilation of accounting headlines in our weekly all-member electronic newsletter.

AccountingWEB sends us the news each week without fail. This service allows TSCPA to deliver breaking professional news to our membership without having to allocate valuable staff time and resources.

AccountingWEB's news wire service is a natural fit for state CPA societies. It makes sense to let a national accounting trade publication do their job while helping us to do ours – providing our members with timely, relevant accounting news.

I highly recommend using AccountingWEB's news wire service.

Sincerely,
